

The Rutland Roman Villa & Mosaics Talk
7th March 2024 @ 7pm
£10 a ticket

Edith Weston Village Hall

In 2020 a Rutland landowner's walk across a field during the pandemic lockdown led to the discovery of one of the most exciting Roman Mosaics in over a century. John Thomas BA MA MCiFA Leicester University, Project Manager of the Rutland Villa project will share the fascinating story of the Villa and Mosaic discovery - and talk about the significance of this unique example of ancient art depicting scenes from the Trojan War.
